JEAN GAUDET

Born in Montréal, Jean Gaudet is a portraitist by nature. No matter the theme, he gets intimate with the subject. He gets very evocative in a personal way and likes to get you to feel like you are one with the picture. His nature scenes are all about texture and light. Water has to feel wet, wood has to smell like wood and the sunshine has to warm up the canvas. His approach is similar when he depicts the human form.
